I can't be Your Knight

Jan Neuhaus - 20.6.2006

| D                   | A G  |
|---------------------|--|
| You've a            | lways got a place in my heart                  |
| D                   | A G  |
|                     | lways got a space in my thoughts               |
| BmDust vide are | A G  |
| But when            | I should have been there  G Bm F#m A           |
| You had             | to fight alone                                 |
| Tou Haa             | _  |
| Chorus:             | G A D I can't be your knight                   |
| Oriorus.            | G A D  |
|                     | I've got no white horse to ride                |
|                     | G A D G  |
|                     | But my love burns inside                       |
|                     | Em Bm F#m G                                    |
|                     | Forgive me the things I hide                   |
| D                   | A G  |
| I always            | want to be were You are  A  G                  |
| I always            | want to stay in Your reach                     |
|                     | ften I leave you alone                         |
| _                   | G Bm F#m A                                     |
| - just for          | get that you wait                              |
| D                   | A G  |
| To seldor           | m I say what I feel                            |
| D                   | A G  |
|                     | m I stop and watch you                         |
| Bm A                |  |
|                     | nd these old blindsG Bm F#m A              |
|                     | ourns inside                                   |
| _                   |  |
| Chorus a            | G A D  |
|                     | Je ne suis pas ton chevalier                   |
|                     | G A D  |
|                     | Je n'ai pas un cheval blanc  G A D G           |
|                     | Mais mon amour brûle a intérieure  Em Bm F#m G |
|                     | Excuse les choses que je cache                 |
|                     | G A D G  |
|                     | But my love burns inside                       |
|                     | Em G D   |
|                     | Forgive me the things I hide                   |